ROTARY CLUB OF ASHEVILLE – WEST / JOHN MAGGARD MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Fact Sheet

DESCRIPTION

John Maggard was a member of the Rotary Club of Asheville – West, from August 1, 1988 until December 31, 1996. For many years prior, he had served as the chair of the marketing department at Miami University of Ohio. When he moved to Asheville, Maggard joined the Rotary Club of Asheville – West, and became the primary moving force behind the establishment of its scholarship fund and programs. Maggard knew the importance of education in the modern world and worked tirelessly in seeing that young people had every opportunity to participate in the educational system. Upon his passing, the Club's board voted to name the scholarship given to students at Clyde A. Erwin High School as the John Maggard Memorial Scholarship in his honor, since it was the first scholarship that this Rotary Club had sponsored.
